Discrimination is Against the Law

Humana Inc. and its subsidiaries (“Humana”) comply with applicable Federal civil rights laws and do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Humana does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Humana provides:

- Free auxiliary aids and services, such as qualified sign language interpreters, video remote interpretation, and written information in other formats to people with disabilities when such auxiliary aids and services are necessary to ensure an equal opportunity to participate.
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English when those services are necessary to provide meaningful access, such as translated documents or oral interpretation.

If you need these services, call 1-877-320-1235 or send an email to accessibility@humana.com, or if you use a TTY, call 711.

If you believe that Humana has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
